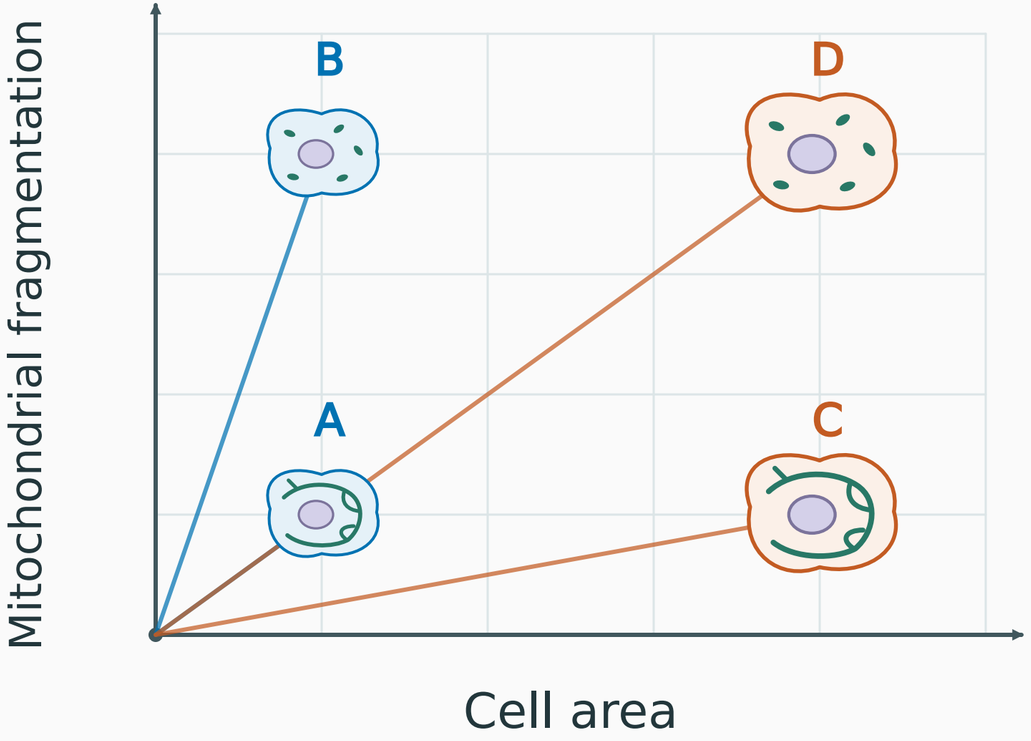
Engineered features

Coordinates have explicit measurement definitions.

$x = [\text{cell area}, \text{fragmentation}, \ldots]$

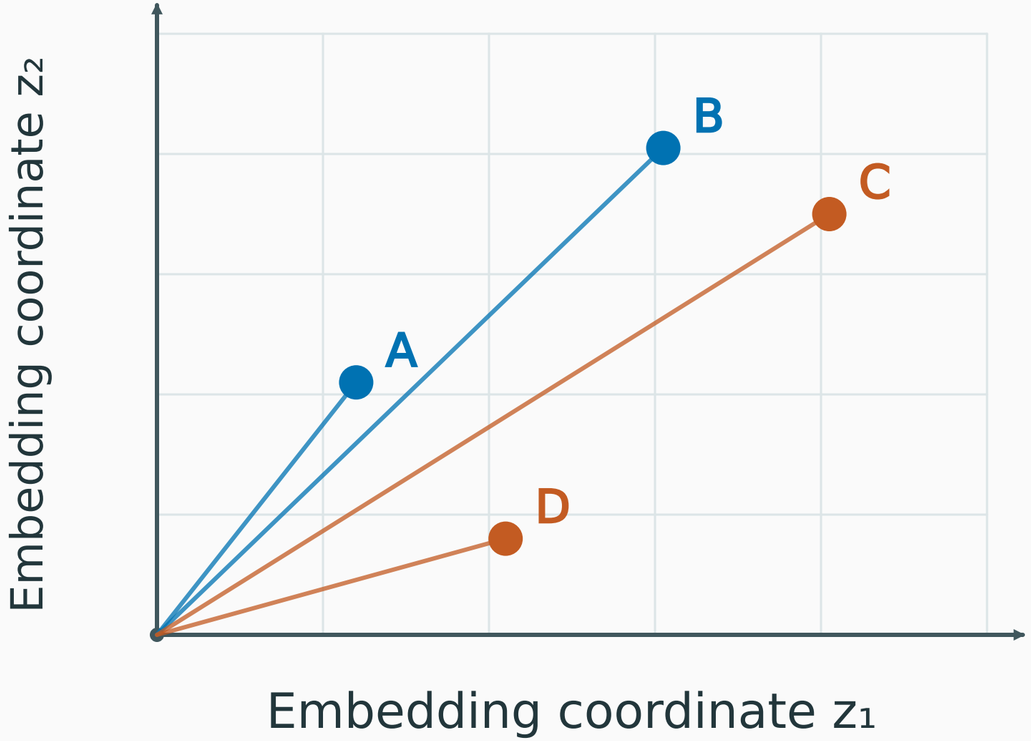


Learned embeddings

Coordinates can mix many visual patterns.

Not necessarily directly interpretable.

$z = [z_1, z_2, \ldots, z_n]$



● Non-senescent ● Senescent

Same example cells, different representations. Illustrative positions — not measured data.